ALL-OUT WAR ON 'TEEN-AGE VIOLATORS' SET

Illegal Driving Practices To Be Target Of Police

CHESTER COUNTY GROUP AIM TO CURB VIOLATIONS

Police chiefs of every community in Chester county have joined forces with State police and the district attorney in an all-out war against the alarming numbers of thrill-happy 'teen-agers who are driving cars illegally.

In an unprecedented meeting called by District Attorney Joseph G. McKee—a meeting which saw police chiefs of every borough and township in the county present—the triumvirate of law enforcers declared war on motor vehicle law violators.

"We're cracking down on all violators," the district attorney said, "but especially the juveniles and 'teen-agers'."

To help them with their war, the law men brought into play a lethal weapon: from now on, they'll be going out for more suspensions and revocations of operators' licenses!

AND IN an effort to cope with the problem of unlicensed juveniles driving cars, police in the county will now make a habit of stopping juveniles on the highways and asking them for their licenses.

The district attorney said that the meeting has been called because of the big increases in the number of motor vehicle law violations, especially by juveniles.

The probation officer reported that in 1952, 75 juveniles appeared before him for motor violations.

The police chief of West Chester reported that the past year in his community, 862 violations of moving traffic laws (doesn't include parking offenses) were reported.

"THE 'TEEN-AGERS' are playing deadly games with cars," the district attorney said.

"They've set up a system of 'points.' For instance," he explained, "they get so many points for going through a 'stop' sign, so many for driving on the wrong side of the road, and others depending

Seven Clubs Agree To Use Joint Signs

Pottstown Inter-Service Club council yesterday approved a plan to erect five signs on streets entering the borough. The signs would represent all seven service clubs and would replace signs of individual clubs that have been used in the past.

The signs would have 30-inch-wide emblems of the clubs, below the words, "Welcome to Pottstown, Chamber of Commerce."

The meeting, at Howard Johnson restaurant, also heard a report by Walter F. Heise on his recent trip to Paris.

The meeting was in the charge of William Hillegass, vice president of American Business club.

AGENT TRACKS ANIMAL Hunt Is Pushed For Bally Bear

Is there a bear in Bally valley? This is the question as the search for the Bally bear enters its second day.

Harry H. Rickert, game protector for the southeastern district of Berks county, reported last night that he spoke to several persons in the Bally area and all verified its existence.

It was early yesterday that Rickert set out to track down the four-footed animal. He made a careful search of the area where it was first spotted but found no evidence which would indicate a bear was there.

The bear, which may be stomping about the hills near Bally at this moment, was spotted Sunday afternoon by James Stauffer, Barto RD 1, along a road off Route 100.

ACCORDING to Stauffer, the bear was seen trying to beat the heat at a spring located on the property of John Melcher, of Bally.

Today Rickert again hopes to take to the hills in search of the bear, if he is still in that locale. He said he would continue to look until all possible leads are exhausted.

Meanwhile, local Deputy Game Protector Richard E. Blair noted if there is a bear in the Bally area it probably would follow the ridge line of the hills surrounding Bally valley.

In any case, if the bear is spotted, a report should be filed immediately with Rickert, who's address is Kutztown RD 2. Remember it is unlawful to injure or shoot the bear out of season.

BEARS ARE almost blind according to Blair. It is difficult for

5 Local Motorists Among Those Caught In Speed Trap Here

Five Pottstown motorists were among the 15 drivers caught in a borough speed trap this past week.

Summonses have been sent out by Second Ward Justice of the Peace Raymond C. Kelley to the 15 drivers, arrested in the West High street trap, held a week ago today.

Pottstown motorists nabbed in the trap were Robert H. Williams, 26 Reynolds avenue; Douglas J. Rightmire, 406 Walnut street; George N. Jacobs, 649 Summit lane; Maurice T. Fiarillo, 724 North Adams street, and Leo Allweis, Maple Gardens, Apartment C-6.

Other drivers arrested in the trap were Louis L. Miller Jr., Reading; Alfred Krechovitz, Phoenixville; Joseph A. Fitzgerald, Philadelphia; Mario N. Marcelllo, Norristown; Dennis F. O'Neil, Coatesville; Rocco DeAngelis, Reading.

The borough of Pottstown sat for its portrait recently and never realized it.

Borough Manager Horace B. Gulden was presented yesterday with a huge aerial photo that takes in all of Pottstown, West Pottsgrove and Lower Pottsgrove.

The picture, measuring more than four feet square, was presented to Gulden and the borough as a gift from the Philadelphia Electric company.

Gulden first inquired about the photograph several weeks ago when he learned that the utility company had aerial photographs of all the territory it serves.

THE BOROUGH manager asked Hilary Missimer, local branch office manager, about the possibility of obtaining a copy for the borough.

Missimer looked into the situation and yesterday turned up with the big photo.

The picture was taken from so high up that the scale is 800 feet to the inch.

The picture will help officials and councilmen of the borough in future planning and developing of the community.

ROAD PROJECT IS 'GIFT' HERE; ACTION URGED

State Would Furnish $12,000 Costs on Street Job

SCHADE HITS COLLEAGUES ON FAILURE TO COMPLY

A member of council's highway committee yesterday blasted his fellow councilmen for the slow and inefficient treatment they're giving a $12,000 "gift" street project.

Gustav H. Schade Jr., ninth ward councilman, said that he "was very peeved at the kind of treatment this project was getting from borough officials."

The project he was talking about concerns State street, from Sixth street to Reynolds avenue.

The State, which is responsible for the maintenance of this highway, will rebuild this stretch of roadway—some 1800 feet—as soon as the borough complies with a few regulations.

IT WON'T cost the borough anything for the new road. The State will pay all costs, which will amount to about $12,000.

The State already has budgeted the funds for the work. But if the work isn't completed this year, there's no way of knowing whether the State would include the project in its budget again next year.

And that's why Councilman Schade is irritated. He's afraid that the borough won't get its end of the bargain finished in time for the State to do the work this year.

"You'd think that since the borough has a chance to get something for nothing it'd move fast to get it," he commented. "But in this case it's been just the opposite," he said.

"I don't know why this project has been passed back and forth so much. It's been months now since the State told us they'd do the work."

THIS IS what the borough has to do before the State will come in and rebuild the street. The section of State street from Sixth street to Reynolds avenue has to be widened to 26 feet. That's a State stipulation.

That'll mean the borough will have to widen the present street by two feet.

Highway committee members have agreed that it would be

Special Board Meeting Called by United Fund

A board meeting of the Pottstown United Fund will be held today at 12:10 p. m. at Brookside Country club.

A special committee, appointed to study a letter from the Salvation Army which included stipulations upon which the "Army" would like to reach agreement, will make a report on the letter.

On the committee are J. Alfred Marquet, Ralph Maack, and William Firth. Douglass V. O'Dell, president, will preside at the meeting.

LONG SERVICE TO WIN HONORS

Frank J. Koegler, general manager of Doehler-Jarvis division, will be guest speaker at Doehler-Jarvis Quarter Century Club's annual Ladies' Night dinner tomorrow at 6:30 p. m. in the Die Casters club.

Koegler, who also is a vice president of National Lead company, with which Doehler's merged recently, will come to Pottstown from the division's general offices in Toledo, Ohio.

The outgoing president of the club, Martin A. Feit, plant controller, said that 250 members and guests are expected to attend the party. The club now has 139 members.

There will be a vocal quartet,

Rain Uncovers Wallet

It's an ill rain that doesn't do somebody some good. David Menkins, 73, Pottstown RD 2, shows how he found the long-lost wallet, with $11 in it, that his son, Charles Menkins, had lost almost exactly a year ago. It was lost in a big cornfield. Mud covering it was washed away by Monday's storm. The son believed enough was left of the money for it to be redeemed.

A young Pottstown area man's wallet, which apparently had been lost hopelessly in a large cornfield, has been found by the young man's father only two days away from the anniversary of its loss.

The loser, 19-year-old Charles Jenkins, Pottstown RD 2, north of Bucktown, said he believed the $11 he'd had in the wallet were identifiable enough to be redeemed by a bank.

Group Will Post Warning Signs At Park Creek

Memorial Park association will post signs with warnings against unsafe swimming practices, in an effort to prevent further drownings in Manatawny park there.

This was reported yesterday by Carroll D. Bechtel Sr., president of the association, who also said that the association will "keep after" the State in an effort to get State assistance in improving the creek.

Bechtel contacted James F. Baird, general secretary of the Pottstown YMCA, asking his help in drawing up a list of swimming "Don'ts" that would be listed on large signs in the park near the creek.

Baird, who once was a life-saving instructor, said he would draw up such a list for Bechtel promptly.

The YMCA head said the "Don'ts" should include, don't go into water unless you know how deep it is, don't dive near rocks, don't swim alone and don't dive into water near some other swimmer.

IF YOUNG swimmers in the Manatawny could be made conscious of these things, Bechtel said, he felt it would do much to reduce the possibility of other drownings there.

The past Sunday, Sandy Green, 19, of 317 Grant street drowned in the creek at almost the identical spot where 25-year-old Arthur Ross, 566 Jefferson avenue, drowned on July 5, 1950.

The park association head, who has been a member of it since its founding, said he believed the signs also may say, "Swimming At Your Own Risk," to emphasize the unguarded nature of the creek.

Much as the association would like to have a patrolled swimming area in the park, Bechtel said, it could not do so now, because it has no funds for improving the swimming area to the point where it would meet State requirements for a public swimming area.

BUT, BECHTEL said, "We want the State to come in there and do something about that darned flooding. We're going to keep right after the State about trying to get some aid."

Monday, J. Max Creswell, head of the Pottstown Recreation commission, said the commission was prepared to set up a chlorination program — after the stream had been brought under control by dredging and dam-building.

Bechtel said the park association had been successful in bringing a State expert to Pottstown

Pottstown Goes Back To Mopping Its Brow Under Blistering Sun

Pottstonians went back to mopping their brows again yesterday, as the cooling effects of Monday's rain bowed to the blistering hot sun.

Old Sol ushered in the third day of Summer at 5:34 a. m., and his long rays of golden light spilled on every nearby village and farm throughout the area.

He greeted early risers with the mercury nudging a refreshing 63 degrees, but by noon the mercury was pushing 86. The high for the day was 88 degrees which was reached at 1 o'clock.

The heat was nothing to get excited about, however.

TO THE WOMAN of the house, who was caught with her wash out Monday morning, the arid sunshine was welcomed. The farmer, too, found the sun a welcome sight.

In his estimation, just enough rain fell Monday to give his crops an added boost, but now he hopes the next rainfall is just as timely as the past one.

As for today, it is expected to be fair with a high temperature of 85 degrees.

The weatherman predicts partly cloudy skies for tomorrow, with a higher humidity. There also will be a chance of scattered thundershowers in the afternoon or night.

NORTH END LOTS OFFERED FOR PLAYGROUNDS

Owner Davidheiser Says He'll Donate Them Free of Cost

The borough has been offered three North End lots to use as playgrounds it was learned last night.

The three lots, two on Park drive and the third on Terrace lane, are owned by Allen K. Davidheiser Jr., 232 Prospect street, contractor and builder.

The owner values the lots, which total more than 30,000 square feet, at $6000.

He has offered to give them to the borough at "no cost providing they are used for playgrounds and maintained by the borough."

HE HAS promised to build houses on them if the borough does not accept the offer this Summer.

Davidheiser explained, "I offered the lots to the borough several years ago when Mr. Sears (Dow I. Sears, former borough manager) was still in borough hall. He said the borough would be very happy to maintain the lots. I haven't heard anything about it since."

"All three lots are in the Belmont terrace section. These lots certainly aren't white elephants." Curbs and sidewalks have been installed in front of all the lots. They are in good condition.

"They do have some weeds on them, but if the borough would cut the weeds it would take very little work to put them in shape."

"NOW'S THE time to think about playgrounds for the area. Not a few years hence when the area has been totally developed."

"Plans for the development out there came from the Urban Land Institute, Washington, D. C., and include all the features of modern developments."

"I will deed the three lots to the borough if they are converted into and maintained as playgrounds. I've told people in the section they can use the lots as playgrounds, but they need some work before

De Gasperi, Churchill Discuss Problems

LONDON, June 23 (P)—Prime Minister Churchill and Italian Premier Alcide De Gasperi discussed prospects of easing East-West tension in Europe and Asia in an hour-long meeting today. The two leaders, official sources said, surveyed many of the international issues which are to figure on the agenda being set for the Bermuda conference of American, British and French government heads. Churchill and De Gasperi were said to have dwelt on chances of translating the six-nation European army project into a reality and of working out some sort of Italo-Yugoslav settlement over the oldtime Trieste dispute.

RECORD SALES SEEN POSSIBLE

Retailer Urges More Advertising in Newspapers

BOSTON, June 23 — Declaring that the American retailer can rack up record sales in the next six months, Max Hess Jr., nationally known Allentown retailer, today urged retailers to increase their newspaper advertising appropriation and to advertise more frequently.

Speaking before the semi-annual meeting of the Newspaper Advertising Executive Association at the Somerset hotel, Hess asserted that increased newspaper advertising was the retailer's hedge against any possible recession in the industry.

The Allentown retailer predicted that the record half of this year (beginning July 1) will see a new peak set in both retail sales and newspaper advertising.

He added that basically, the objective of the newspaper and the retailer is the same—that is to increase retail sales through the wise use of newspaper space.

A STRONG advocate of the use of newspaper advertising, Hess said, that it is not enough to merely increase newspaper advertising but the "retailer must also advertise more often, when things look uncertain, that is, when we have to fight hardest for stability," he observed.

The department store head said that the retailers should put more advertising emphasis on those so-called "weak days" of the week.

He said that it is up to the advertising directors on newspapers to work more closely

He added that not only will the retailer and the newspaper benefit from such a program but also the consumer.

Striking Stevedores Return to Work

HONOLULU, June 23 (P)—Union workers today ended a paralyzing dock and plantation walkout which began Friday in protest against conviction of their leader in Hawaii's Communist conspiracy case.

But the repercussions continued. The International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union doubled from 11 to 22 cents the hourly increase it is demanding in behalf of stevedores.

After the conviction of their leader, Jack Hall, union officials were quoted as saying:

"The bosses made a big mistake. It's going to cost them money."

Today the 2000 stevedores went back to the docks, where tied-up ships had included five loading military cargo for Korea.

LONDON, June 23 (P)—Even Britain's Royal family feels taxes—and doesn't like them too much. Queen mother Elizabeth, making an appeal for the National Art Collection fund, told a public meeting today:

"We live in days when crushing taxation has made certain that enlightened patronage, which in the past has enriched England by possessions uncollected by other countries, cannot prosper."

"Many of the famous houses that housed these lovely collections stand empty and crumbling and their contents are being steadily dispersed."

"It is in these circumstances, happily, that the fund committee stepped in and plays the role of discerning patron to them, all of us who value beauty owe it a lasting debt."

RED SKIPPER JUMPS SHIP, ASKS ASYLUM

Polish Liner Captain Was Decorated for Aid To Eisler

DOCTOR REMAINS BEHIND WHEN VESSEL QUITS PORT

LONDON, June 23 (AP)—The captain of the Polish liner Batory, decorated by Red Poland for his part in the Eisler escape episode, has jumped his ship and asked for asylum in Britain.

Capt. Jan Cwiklinski and the Batory's principal medical officer both stayed ashore when the Batory sailed Saturday. Officials said tonight Cwiklinski's appeal for asylum is under study.

Responsible sources said later their request for asylum undoubtedly would be granted.

Reports tonight said Cwiklinski, 53, and the doctor named Tacklauer left the Batory at Hebburn, four miles from the Tyne river port of South Shields where the ship had been refitting since May.

THE SHIP sailed Saturday for Poland with no stops scheduled en route through the Baltic sea.

The Batory, pride of Red Poland, is the ship Russian spy Valentine Gubichev took home from New York and the ship on which Gerhardt Eisler stowed away in 1949, with suspected connivance of some aboard, and escaped to Europe. At the time, Eisler was awaiting deportation from the United States for making a false statement when he first entered that country. He eventually made his way to East Germany and became a Communist propaganda chief. He is now out of favor.

Capt. Cwiklinski, a World War II naval hero on the Allied side, was awarded Poland's gold cross of merit for opposing attempts in Britain to seize Eisler from his ship.

The Captain's turnabout from Red Poland came as a big surprise

LONDON NEWSPAPERS said both Cwiklinski and the ship's medical officer were being detained at Durham prison while their pleas for asylum were being considered. Most Western countries grant asylum with little ado, but the Polish skipper's case is expected to get special attention.

The British Home office said Cwiklinski had jumped his ship but when asked about the medical officer, a Home office spokesman replied:

"No information about him is available."

West Germans Mass for Memorial While Reds 'Justice' Deals Death

BERLIN, June 23 (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer told 125,000 sorrowing Berliners, massed here today for a memorial service to the victims of the East German revolt, that the men they mourned had showed the world Germans will never yield to Soviet tyranny.

But the mills of Communist justice ground out death and prison sentence for East German workers in the crushed June 17 rebellion. Long columns in Communist papers from 32 East German cities reported the sentences. Twenty-two Germans, including the Communist mayor of Dobernitz, have been reported by the Communist press.

Informationsbureau, a private West Berlin intelligence organization, said tonight three East German People's police, brought from Zwickau in Saxony to suppress the revolt in East Berlin, also had been executed for disobeying orders, tearing off their uniforms and throwing down their arms.

After seven days of martial law 150,000 Russian combat troops and 100,000 Communist police-infantry still enforced an iron rule.

The West German Chancellor spoke at a memorial serv-

Overloading of Warehouse Is Blamed For Collapse of Building During Fire

PHILADELPHIA, June 23 (AP)—Sabotage was ruled out today as the cause of a fire which reduced a five-story warehouse to smoldering rubble and destroyed thousands of tons of Government-owned rubber in North Philadelphia yesterday.

Chief Police Inspector Albert E. Du Bois said the building, owned by the Alba Warehouse company and leased for Government storage, collapsed because of structural weaknesses. Testimony by witnesses, he said, indicated the wood and brick building caught fire after it crumbled.

Du Bois said a board of inquiry which included agents of the FBI had concluded that the collapse resulted from overloading. The building held 4000 tons of baled crude rubber and 2000 tons of sacked tannin extract. Owners of the warehouse claimed it was loaded in accordance with Government specifications.

Evictee, 75, Rocks Long Night in Chair

PITTSBURGH, June 23 (AP)—A lonely 75-year-old woman, evicted from her home after she proudly refused help from charity, calmly watched the world go by today, sitting in a rocking chair on the sidewalk amid her meager possessions.

Margaret Hespenthal spent the night on the sidewalk after she was ejected yesterday from her two-room apartment in the North Side district. She said she has fallen about a year or $120 behind in her rent. She hasn't been able to work for six years.

Several relief agencies said they offered Miss Hespenthal aid but that she refused. Although it didn't rain and it wasn't cold, Miss Hespenthal found she "just couldn't sleep" last night.

Throughout West Germany as well as West Berlin, factories and traffic halted and people stood in five minutes of silence. American Army flags and the flags at Strasbourg's European council headquarters were lowered to half staff.

It was the most impressive demonstration of national German solidarity in resistance to Communist oppression since the war.

Twenty-two Germans, including the Communist mayor of Dobernitz, have been reported by the Communist press.

Informationsbureau, a private West Berlin intelligence organization, said tonight three East German People's police, brought from Zwickau in Saxony to suppress the revolt in East Berlin, also had been executed for disobeying orders, tearing off their uniforms and throwing down their arms.

After seven days of martial law 150,000 Russian combat troops and 100,000 Communist police-infantry still enforced an iron rule.

MEMORY LACK Appointee Reveals $5000 Pension, HITS CHRISTIE

Horror House Murderer Can't Remember His Victims

LONDON, June 23 (AP)—John Christie, sometimes weeping, mumbled to a jury in Old Bailey court today that he wasn't sure how many women he strangled—but his lawyer admitted at least seven had been done to death in "sex madness."

The balding, 35-year-old clerk told his terrifying story with head bowed—his voice so low that the jury of nine men and three women leaned forward with ears cupped in hands to hear.

Defense counsel Derek Curtis-Bennett led the meek-looking Christie on gently in direct examination after describing his client as "mad as a March hare when he kills people."

Christie broke down and wept as he described his wife's death—the 54-year-old woman of whose murder he is specifically accused.

THEY WERE in bed together, he said, when:

"Her face was bluish and she seemed to be choking. I did not like to see her like that. Then I put her to sleep. I saw a stocking there on the bed and tied it around her neck."

Christie seemed in a daze as he told his sordid story from the same witness stand where his straightforward testimony four years ago helped send another man to the gallows.

Today Christie admitted in a statement read to the court that he had murdered the man's pretty young wife.

Timothy Evans, 25, was hanged in 1949 for murdering his infant daughter who was found dead in the 10 Rillington place "Death House" with her mother.

Russian Railroad Men Dwell in a Paradise!

LONDON, June 23 (AP)—Moscow radio tonight reported that Russian railroad men sleep between snow-white sheets and find life in the Soviet Union just grand.

When engine-driver Alexei Ivanov stopped at a rest home along the tracks, the broadcast said, "he was received like an old friend. Ivanov, his assistants and the stoker put on pajamas and slippers. They had their baths and dinner. And then, they read the latest papers before going to bed between snow-white sheets."

Appointee Reveals $5000 Pension, Startles Senate Interior Committee

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP)—Tom Lyon, nominated by President Eisenhower as director of the Bureau of Mines, startled senators today with testimony that he is drawing a $5000-a-year pension as a retired official of Anaconda Copper corporation.

Lyon also declared that Congress executive for Anaconda and its subsidiaries from 1916 to 1950.

Federal Mine Safety law the past year. If confirmed by the Senate, Lyon would be responsible for enforcing the safety law.

Lyon's testimony before the Senate Interior committee took senators aback and perhaps jeopardized his chances of being confirmed. The 63-year-old mining engineer has already come under fire from John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers union, who is scheduled to testify tomorrow.

The President's nominee drew glances of surprise as he testified that his pension could be cut off at the pleasure of Anaconda and then commented:

"YOU CAN'T take these Government jobs if you don't have outside income."

Legal experts said that as far as they knew, there is no law prohibiting a Federal official from drawing a pension from private business. There is a law, however, barring top level Federal officials from drawing outside salaries.

Lyon said he owns no Anaconda stock. He said he worked as an

Godfrey Sets Possible Return Date

BOSTON, June 23 (AP)—TV-radio star Arthur Godfrey today set Aug. 1 as the tentative date for his return to the airwaves. Earlier reports set his return for July 6.

Godfrey is recuperating at Massachusetts General hospital from a hip operation. He is walking with crutches and strengthens his muscles by pedalling a stationary bicycle.

"I won't be back on radio or TV until about Aug. 1," Godfrey said. "The doctors say I can't keep this leg of mine in one position for more than three or four minutes at a time, so until I can stay put for 20 minutes or a half hour, work is out."

He still suffers considerable pain, he said, "it's not pain in the hip joint any more. It's muscle

Dr. Marius N. Smith-Petersen, who performed the hip operation May 15, died a week ago. Hospital bulletins say the popular star's condition has progressed satisfactorily. Godfrey injured his hip in a 1931 automobile accident.

Godfrey said he is getting bored with his enforced layoff and plans to fly back "early in July" to his home in Leesburg, Va.

He still suffers considerable pain, he said, "it's not pain in the hip joint any more. It's muscle

RHEE REMAINS FIRM ON TERMS

South Korean Leader Insists Country Will Fight On

SEOUL, Wednesday, June 24 (AP)—President Syngman Rhee today stuck firmly by his avowed plan to pull out his South Korean army from the UN command and go it alone unless an impending truce is revised to fit his newest and stiffer terms.

The defiant 78-year-old leader, saying "we don't care what the Communists and Russians think of it," stated publicly his price for a cease-fire just after Gen. Mark Clark spent two days trying to get him in line.

Rhee's demands, called "totally unacceptable" by the US embassy in Seoul, were voiced ahead of the arrival of special US emissaries rushing by plane from Washington to impress upon him the views of President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles.

Meanwhile the Chinese Communist radio said the UN command must be prepared to guarantee South Korean adherence to any truce achieved in Korea.

IT REPEATEDLY previously voiced Chinese demands for an immediate truce as carried in an editorial in the official Peiping People's Daily.

Peiping charged that responsibility for any further delay in signing a truce "rests squarely on the American command."

CHINESE REDS HURL ATTACKS AT 2 POSITIONS

American, ROK Soldiers Throw Back Drive At Ridge

SEOUL, Wednesday, June 24 (AP)—Two Chinese regiments smashed at Sniper ridge and Boomerang ridge on the East-Central Korean front early today, but American and South Korean forces stopped one of the assaults.

The Communist assaults — by some 6000 to 7000 men—broke a full of several days which followed the past week's heavy Chinese offensive against South Korean positions.

Frontline officers reported Allied artillery, tanks and infantrymen smashed the regimental assault on Boomerang ridge about four hours after it had begun.

Allied officers reported details of the action were meager. The new attacks began at midnight.

BOTH RIDGES are north of Kunhwa — west of the sector in which the Chinese rammed the main Allied line back up to two miles earlier this month in the biggest offensive in two years.

Rain turned the battlefield into a quagmire yesterday.

Reports were sketchy on the Sniper Ridge action at daybreak, but Allied officers reported South Korean and American troops on Boomerang Ridge stopped that assault and forced the Reds to withdraw by 4:45 a. m.

Frontline officers said the Chinese regiment hitting Boomerang Ridge suffered more than 700 casualties.

The Chinese fired an estimated 21,000 rounds of artillery and mortar fire in support of the assault on Boomerang. They also used tanks and self-propelled guns in the action.

Allied big guns roared back. Tanks poured direct fire onto the attacking Chinese.

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

LUXURY DETAILS feature this house designed for maintenance without a servant problem. An indoor-outdoor garden growing on both sides of a window wall glorifies the kitchen where a Dutch oven and barbecue fireplace are built into the wall of the informal dining space. A pantry, compartmented bathrooms, rear service vestibule leading to basement and center-hall entrance foyer are among features. This is Plan 305-M by Rudolph A. Matern, architect, 90-04 161 st St., Jamaica 2, N. Y. The house covers 1,742 square feet without two-car garage and porches. (Further information and plans available from architect)

Teacher Group Head Suffers Back Injury In Tumble on Step

Mrs. Elizabeth E. Stevenson, president of Pottstown Teachers' association, was in Pottstown hospital yesterday with a fractured lower vertebra suffered in a fall onto a concrete step at a neighbor's house.

Mrs. Stevenson, who lives at 626 North Evans street, fell while leaving the home of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Mower, 622 North Evans street, after saying goodbye to them before they left on a trip.

Mower is principal of Pottstown Junior High school. Mrs. Stevenson teaches there, and is director of the school's drill team.

Mrs. Stevenson apparently hit her spine on the edge of a concrete step.

After examination by her physician, Dr. Ellnor S. Hadra, Mrs. Stevenson was taken to the hospital by Good Will ambulance. She is expected to be hospitalized for several weeks. Her condition last night was "fairly good."

Woman Passenger Killed When Car Leaves Road

WEST CHESTER, June 23 (AP)—A car ran up one embankment, down a 300 foot bank and turned over on the Pennsylvania Turnpike today killing Mrs. Pauline Sytko, 56, of Salem, Ohio.

Chester county Coroner Creston

I. Shoemaker said Mrs. Sytko's son, Henry, 27, said he dozed off at the wheel. He suffered head injuries and cuts and bruises.

He said he and his mother were enroute to Philadelphia to visit relatives.

L. L. Little Discusses County Development

Residential development of Montgomery county in recent years was explained to Pottstown Kiwanians last night.

Leroy L. Little, director of Montgomery county planning commission, told members the lower end of the county has developed more rapidly than upper Montgomery county.

He attributed the county's heavy increase in population to the number of persons moving out of cities and increased industrial expansion of southeastern Pennsylvania.

Sixty-five members were present at the session in the Elk's home with Stanley I. Davenport Jr., past president, in charge. President William D. Mower is attending the Kiwanis international convention in New York city.

Richard A. Patrizi was admitted to the club.

Pinay Quits Efforts To Become Premier

PARIS, June 23 (AP)—Antoine Pinay tonight gave up his efforts to form a new French Cabinet after two big political parties in the National Assembly had refused their support.

Pinay was asked by President Vincent Auriol to try to end the long political crisis, now in its 34th day, by forming a Government that included as many political parties as possible.

Pinay delayed his answer until the Popular Republican Movement (MRP), a Catholic left-of-center party with 89 deputies, told Pinay he could not count on many of its votes.

The Republican Union and Social Action group (URAS) deputies (81 votes) told him the same thing.

Ammo Plant Jobs Safe, Survey Says

CHICAGO, June 23 (AP)—If you're looking for safe work, get a job in one of the Army's 22 principal ammunition plants.

Official statistics released today by the National Safety Council and the Ordnance Ammunition center in Joliet, Ill., showed that this type of work in 1952 was only one-fourth as hazardous as working in the average American industrial factory.

The 75,000 ammunition plant workers suffered an injury rate only one third as large as persons riding in automobile and an accidental death rate only one fifth as large as farm workers.

Canadian City to Test Air Raid 'Screen'

WINNIPEG, June 23 (AP)—A plan to cover Winnipeg with a smoke screen in the event of war is being tested now, the Metropolitan Civil Defense board said today.

A Los Angeles company is testing atmospheric conditions to see if a smoke screen would provide camouflage. Winnipeg, the first Canadian city to be tested, was chosen because it is near Minneapolis, one of the company's bases.

The $35,000 cost of the project is being borne by the US Government as part of mutual civil defense research.

Defense Admits Man Entered Bedroom

BUTLER, June 23 (AP)—Defense counsel for Russell Budd, 26, on trial for murder in the installment plan slaying of Mrs. Alice Storch, admitted today Budd was in her bedroom the night she was strangled.

Budd has pleaded innocent to the charge.

He and Walter Hender, through Richard Haines, 28, also son, 26, who pleaded guilty, are accused of actually committing the crime Feb. 21.

Widow Identifies Hanging Skeleton

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., June 23 (AP)—A skeleton found Sunday in an unused attic of a private club was identified today from clothing as that of Lauriano Cabral, 29-year-old mill worker, who vanished nearly seven years ago.

Louis Costa, club custodian, made the gruesome discovery while fixing an attic window from the outside. He said the skeleton hanging from a rope.

Cabral's widow identified the clothing as his as well as a key which fitted her home.

She told police Cabral complained of not feeling well, July 16, 1946, when he returned from work and went to his room. He had not been seen since that time.

Britons Seek Debate On East-West Role

STRASBOURG, France, June 23 (AP)—British members of the European Consultative assembly today pushed for a full scale debate this week on Europe's role in the current East-West international situation.

Alfred Robens, Laborite, and Christopher Hollis, Conservative, spearheaded this drive as the European assembly resumed its own sittings after yesterday's joint meeting with the Schuman plan parliamentary branch.

The point—what attitude the Council of Europe should adopt in developments between Moscow and Washington—is on the agenda but assembly officers had tentatively agreed to shelve it as possibly "embarrassing" for the forthcoming Bermuda conference.

Robens vigorously opposed such a step.

"If we postponed a debate every time it embarrassed someone, we would never have one," he declared.

Bosox Rap Tribe in 2; Chisox Top Yanks

BOSTON, June 23 (AP)—Milt Bolling's two-out double in the tenth inning ruined Bob Chakales' five-hit pitching stint and gave the Boston Red Sox a sweep of their day-night doubleheader with the Cleveland Indians, 2-1. Dick Gernert's wind-blown fly dropped for a two-run triple in the eighth inning to give the Red Sox an afternoon 6-4 triumph.

Lefty Maury McDermott, facing a lineup packed with right-handed hitters, also gave up five hits.

Chakales, who had worked only 10 2/3 innings in his previous four appearances, opened the extra inning by walking George Kell. He was sacrificed by Sammy White before Tom Umpthlett drew an intentional pass.

The Cleveland right-hander managed to get Jim Piersall to fly out before Bolling lashed his game-winning two-bagger into left field.

McDermott faced only 19 batters while holding the Indians scoreless over the first six frames. George Strickland then opened the seventh with a single and advanced on a walk to Al Rosen and Larry Doby's fly before scoring from third on Bob Kennedy's fly to left.

The Red Sox pulled on even terms in the eighth when Umpthlett doubled, took third as Piersall reached on a sacrifice fielder's choice and, with two out, scored on McDermott's fly to left.

Gernert's fluky triple bolstered Willard Nixon's seven-hit pitching by breaking a 4-4 tie in the matinee.

Larkin Leads 54-46 Victory

Phoenixville Wins Third Straight In Outdoor Circuit, Bumps Boyers

Phoenixville raced on through a Boyertown team that has taken on a distinct Norco flavoring last night for its third straight win in the Outdoor Basketball league, 54-46, at the Junior High school.

The Clippers, sparked by Tommy Larkin, Harry Lobnitz and Al Pete, were never headed after assuming a 13-7 first period lead. The Boyers did outscore them in the third period, 13-10, to close the gap to 39-36, but a 15-point burst in the final stanza paced by Larkin's four-field goals smothered the bid.

Norco's 6-6 Pete Lang cranked in 14 markers to pace the Boyertown quint, garnering 10 of his points after intermission. Another erstwhile Wildcat, Charley Foreman, blocked off eight counters in the second period while his team tallied 16 points to keep abreast of the Clips, and finished with 11.

LARKIN BANGED in 16 points to pace the victors, followed by Lobnitz's 12 and Pete's 11. Lobnitz did all his scoring in the first half as the Clips ran up a 29-23 advantage.

Tonight Erntex and the unbeaten Tomboys clash on the Junior High school outdoor palestra at 9:15.

ST. LOUIS, June 23 (AP)—Twice scoring seven runs in one inning, the St. Louis Cardinals tonight drubbed the New York Yankees, 15-8, as southpaw Harvey Haddix survived two big frames to score his ninth victory of the year.

To gain their twelfth triumph in the last 14 starts and pull within one-half game of second place, the Cardinals tallied more runs than in any previous contest and bunched 12 of their 15 hits in the first and fourth innings. Haddix' three-run homer featured a seven-run first inning and Del Rice's grand-slam homer highlighted the seven-run fourth.

The Redbirds sent 11 men to bat in the first inning, knocking out lefty Dave Koslo before he retired a batter, and scored seven runs in a frame capped by Haddix' three-run homer.

In the fourth against right-handers Frank Hiller and Al Corvin, 11 St. Louis batters again paraded to the plate and Rice climaxed the seven-run inning with his grand-slam.

The Giants bunched seven of their 11 hits off Haddix in the fourth and fifth innings during which they scored all their runs. Bobby Hofman hit a three-run homer in the fourth and Daryl Spencer and Bobby Thomson belted back-to-back home runs in the fifth. They were the tenth for each of the two players.

Haddix stiffened thereafter and allowed only one hit the last four innings.

NEW YORK, June 23 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox exploded for six runs in the fifth inning tonight and went on to trounce the high flying New York Yankees, 11-3, before a Yankee Stadium crowd of 46,756. Nellie Fox drove in four, Chicago runs with a pair of triples as the Sox hung the third defeat of the year on "Big Chief" Allie Reynolds.

The vaunted Yankees did just what the rest of the league has hoped they might—they fell apart, committing four costly errors.

Reynolds held the Chicagoans hitless until two were out in the fourth but the roof caved in on him after he walked Sherman Lollar to open the fifth. Three errors plus singles by Ferris Fain and Jim Rivera, a double by Ed Stewart and Fox's first triple brought in the six tallies.

Reynolds came back for more in the sixth and this time the Sox clubbed him for three more on a pair of singles, another triple by Fox and a single by Minnie Minoso.

Manager Casey Stengel finally gave up on Reynolds and brought on Ray Scarborough to start the seventh. Rivera greeted him with a double, moved to third when Scarborough threw into center field trying to trap him off second and scored on Tom Wright's pinch-single.

Moore Favorite to Retain Crown

OGDEN, Utah, June 23 (AP)—Archie Moore, the 36-year-old California, at 36 a relic in the ring, remained the betting favorite today to retain his world's light heavyweight championship against 31-year-old Joey Maxim of Cleveland over the 15 round route tomorrow night.

The champion from San Diego was generally quoted a 3 to 1 choice by the betting people. This was comparable to the 8-5 margin he held the night that he lifted the crown for the 175 pound division from handsome Joey in St. Louis last Dec. 17.

Copromoters Al Warden and Kenny Mayne, banking on statewide interest in Utah's first title match in history, maintained hopes that more than 10,000 fans would pay from $5 to $20 to see the affair and bring gate receipts up toward $100,000.

Their belief was predicated on the fact that last year in this aggressive city of 37,112 souls (1950 census), a similar turnout paid $133,000 to see favorite son Rex Layne win a decision over Erzsard Charles.

The winner of the Maxim-Moore match may get a shot at the heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano and Ogden has already set its sights on hosting such a scrap if it materializes.

YOUNG LAYNE, a late starter, is scheduled to appear on tomorrow night's card, obviously as a boost to the show. He is matched against Billy McClure, who at the moment doesn't own a license to fight in his home state of California. His license was picked up on the coast June 17 "for his own best interests," according to the California Boxing commission.

The Moore-Maxim fight will be screened to the nation's television audience starting at 10 p. m., Eastern Daylight time. The intermountain states will be blacked out and there will be no radio broadcast anywhere.

Jack Kearns, Maxim's venerable manager, took a look at the calendar and the weather predictions and smiled broadly.

The weather man predicted the thermometer would surpass 85 degrees, indicating that Ogden's open air stadium at the foot of the beautiful Wasatch mountains might be quite torrid tomorrow evening.

Interest Here and Abroad High in British Open; Champ Moore or Less a Sure Bet Against Maxim

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK, June 23 (AP)—It's a pretty safe bet that at the very moment you are reading this essay Ben Hogan has a golf club in his hands and either is on the practice tee or trying out the Carnoustie layout for size.

The rugged Texan goes about his preparation for a big tournament with the same methodical precision as an architect drawing plans for a big building, and the scene of the British Open offers a welcome challenge to his ingenuity.

We saw him at Winged Foot Sunday, where he played a final round on American soil before flying overseas with his wife, Valorie. His presence at Winged Foot was unheralded, but the news spread through locker room and grill with the slightly-awed whispers "Ben Hogan's going to play here today."

As a consequence there was a fair gallery following him around in the steamy heat. Hogan's feats already have made him a living legend, and golf addicts and even those who wouldn't know a green from a bunker gaze upon him with a respect reserved for those who are matchless in their field.

Ben said he never has seen Carnoustie, but he laughed off the idea the course was "made for him," saying no course is made for a particular golfer.

"I'm going to play the smaller English ball," he said. "I'd be foolish not to. It can be controlled better, has greater distance, and puts better. Also, it would be better in the wind, which I understand blows briskly over there on occasion. I played it once a few years ago, and liked it."

This is the big one for Ben, and we have the idea the progress of the British Open will be followed both here and over there more closely than any open since the Bobby Jones' era.

Everybody over here will be pulling for him. We have the hunch he won't disappoint his followers.

IT HAS CREPT up almost furtively, but we've suddenly become aware there will be a light heavyweight title match at Ogden, Utah, tomorrow night involving champion Archie Moore and challenger Joey Maxim.

That the result will be the same as that of their previous meeting, more or less taken for granted, with the only question involving whether Moore will just chop up, or take a one-sided decision, or will be able to knock him out.

Knocking out Joey, even for a to crack a light bulb, but he knows how to take care of himself pretty well inside those ropes, twisting and ducking and riding with punches and tying up his opponent with a variety of holds which would be the envy of any wrestler.

He's game as they come, and had he been equipped with a stout punch might have become one of our really fine fighters.

Moore just carries too many guns for the punchless Joey, and he has considerable boxing skill to go along with them.

The one advantage Maxim might have is Doc Kearns. If the fight by any chance should be close, Doc can be relied upon to out-shout the ring. He can't hit hard enough everyone in the vicinity.

ARCHIE MOORE JOEY MAXIM
ON DIFFERENT SIDES OF THE FENCE—In the last meeting of these two, Archie Moore and Joey Maxim, was the challenger and Maxim was light heavyweight champion of the world. Tonight Moore will defend the title he won from Maxim the past December against Pal Joey in a 15-round bout at Ogden, Utah.

Hogan Starts Practice Today

CARNOUSTIE, Scotland, June 23 (AP)—Ben Hogan arrived at famed Carnoustie today but decided to wait a day before putting in any practice Hicks for the British Open golf tournament July 6-10.

"I'm dog tired," the United States Open champion told newsmen. "I'll get my clubs out tomorrow. Right now I just want to get my head down."

Hogan arrived by air today with his wife, Valeria, and the two-time British Amateur champion Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio. Stranahan went out in the afternoon for a round of practice.

Once-Fat Frank Shea Keeping AL Batters Starving For Earned Runs; Robin Roberts Leads National

NEW YORK, June 23 (AP)—Frank (Spec) Shea, who almost ate his way out of the big leagues a few years ago, is putting the American League batters on a starvation diet of runs.

Weight troubles and a sore arm cost Shea a job as a regular starting pitcher in 1949 and sent him to Newark and Kansas City. He began a comeback last season after he was traded to Washington and he is continuing it in fine style this season.

Statistics compiled by the Associated Press reveal that the 30-year-old Shea has the lowest earned run average of any American League pitcher today, an impressive 2.25. Robin Roberts of the Phillies, pacing the National League, has an even better average, 2.17. Figures include Monday's games.

Shea has allowed only 16 earned runs in 64 innings. He has started eight games and completed five while posting a 6-1 won-lost record. In 22 games last year Spec compiled the 11th best ERA in the American League and the best of his major league career, 2.93.

ROBERTS, IN compiling an 11-4 won-lost record, has given up 34 earned runs in 141 innings. The sturdy 26-year-old hurler leads the league in games won, 11, and in strikeouts with 77. He also has completed all 16 of his starts. Last season he finished third in ERA effectiveness with a 2.59 mark.

Knuckleball artist Hoyt Wilhelm of the New York Giants, who has relieved 33 times, is runnerup to Roberts with 2.22. Wilhelm, last year's earned run leader with a 2.43 average, has been solved for 17 earned runs in 69 innings.

Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell of the St. Louis Cardinals holds down third with 2.77, having allowed 24 earned runs in 78 frames. Warren Spahn of Milwaukee is fourth with 2.85, followed by Philadelphia's Curt Simmons in fifth with 2.90. Mizell, Spahn and Simmons are southpaws.

Harry Dorish of the Chicago White Sox ranks second to Shea in American League earned runs with a 2.38 average. The veteran relief specialist has issued 19 earned runs in 72 innings.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A CUSTOMER walked into a Bucks County antique shop with an old painting under her arm and asked the proprietor, "How much?" "Two-fifty," he said crisply. "That doesn't seem fair," she remarked. "I'm sure it's worth a lot more than that." "Two-fifty's what I said, Lady," insisted the proprietor. "Pictures like that are a dime a dozen in these parts. I offer you two-fifty. Take it or leave it." "Oh, I'll take it," she assured him. "It was marked $30 when I took it out of your window."

A merchant marine captain, writes Louis Sattler, was ordered to pick up a cargo of poultry at an Atlantic port, but was deeply concerned about the limited time the tide gave him to complete the job. So he counted his hatches before there were chickens. Copyright, 1953, by Bennett Cerf. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

Boy Scouts Allowed to Use Range; All Now May Get Archery Badges

For Pottstown area Boy Scouts and Explorers, the earning of a merit badge in archery is due to become a pleasant adventure. They can now practice on a new range that has just been made available to them.

Local members of the Perkiomen Valley Archery club, who built the Rock Hill field archery range near Sanatoga, decided recently to let the Scouts use it if accompanied by an adult leader. Leonard Yerger, William Taglieber and Edward Pruner are the archers responsible for the new range.

Yerger, who is Scoutmaster of Grace Lutheran Troop 15 and Continental district merit badge counselor in archery, has announced that the range is now open to the Scouts.

"All they have to do if they want to use it is to notify me or one of the others," he said. "Any of us will be glad to help them get started."

THE FIVE-acre range is located on Blum road near Pleasantview road, below Hillcrest peach orchard.

"Targets on the range are set up on different levels to represent field conditions," the counselor explained.

"Some shooting positions are also elevated, as for instance, on a rock, to give the impression of shooting down hill," he said.

Field archery, unlike the target variety, is intended to represent the conditions the archer finds when on the hunt for game.

The targets on the Rock Hill range are attached to bales of straw set on end, known as bosses. Proficiency in either field or target archery can qualify a scout for the archery merit badge, Yerger said.

Several scouts of Troop 15 are already working for the badge. Monday night's scout meetings were devoted for the most part to preparations for Summer camping.

AMONG TROOPS preparing for one or two weeks at Camp Delmont, the district camp near Sunnyside, are First Methodist (Troop 4, Zion's Reformed Troop 5, First Presbyterian Troop 3 and St. James Lutheran Troop 16).

Area Girl Reported In 'Good' Condition After Freak Mishap

The 16-year-old Pottstown area girl who suffered shocks Monday when a high voltage wire fell on her car was reported in "good" condition by a Memorial hospital spokesman last night.

Janet Kirkhoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester G. Kirkhoff, Glen Moore RD 1, was admitted to the hospital early Monday afternoon after her car ran out of control and struck a utility pole.

Lightning struck the pole, burned off a wire which dropped on her car, and shocked the victim who then lost control and ran into the pole.

The girl's mother said last night, "She is fortunate she leaped from the car. The car was charged. You can see where the electricity burned it."

"WHEN SHE arrived at the hospital she couldn't give her name. She couldn't feel for some time after the accident."

Mrs. Kirkhoff added, "She was going out to get 'gas' for the car. We thought the worst of the storm was over."

The freak accident took place one-quarter mile from the girl's home. She was taken to Memorial hospital by Mrs. C. L. Thomas, Havertown, Delaware county.

Minute Men to Hear Address by Herbsleb

Banking progress in Pottstown will be the theme of today's noon session of Pottstown Minute Men at Howard Johnson's restaurant.

C. Fred Herbsleb, president of the National bank of Pottstown will speak on "Advantages of Branch Banking in Our Community."

Attorney Joseph L. Prince, vice president of the Citizens National Bank and Trust company, will speak briefly.

The dinner discussion was arranged by Frederick G. Erb, president of Citizens bank.

After the luncheon Minute Men will visit the new East High street office of the National bank.

The meeting will be in charge of Chairman A. C. Seavell.

Borough Lions Hear Penitentiary Chaplain

Eighty to 85 percent of the men that leave prison "go straight," according to the Rev. John T. Coates, Catholic chaplain at the Eastern State penitentiary, Graterford.

In speaking at a dinner meeting of the Lions club at the Eagles Home association, Father Coates said the man in prison has but one ambition, and that is to get out.

Father Coates pointed out the prison has a four-fold program: physical, spiritual, intellectual and mechanical. He said Graterford penitentiary was built in the late 1920's with two purposes in mind: first to protect society and second, to rehabilitate the inmates.

In its rehabilitation program, the prison maintains a 1700-acre farm which is operated by the inmates. "Many times these men go about their work unguarded," he added.

IT IS ALMOST impossible to have a riot at the penitentiary, Father Coates explained, because of the effective grapevine existing there.

EIGHTH GRADERS HEAR TALK BY REV. SHOAGAN

24 Are Promoted At Mont Clare School

MONT CLARE—Mrs. Thomas Carns, Bridge and Grace street, Mont Clare, corr. Phone Phoenixville 2537, C. Douglas Hale, delivery. Phone Pottstown 31-J-2.

Twenty-four members of the Eighth grade class of the Mont Clare school recently was told by the Rev. Paul Shogan that "Every one will find a place in life that fits him where he will be happy doing the things he is best fitted for," in a baccalaureate address.

He told them it is their job to find where they belong and that teachers have given them a foundation of training that they will put to use.

The Rev. Shogan's address was heard following a procession of Eighth graders and the invocation by the Rev. William Blatt, pastor of Otterbein Evangelical United Brethren church, Mont Clare.

The hymn "Holy, Holy, Holy," was then sung and the Scripture lesson was taken from Corinthians 1-13. The Rev. Blatt led the group in prayer which was followed by hand rubbed, mahogany finish. with nine drawers, brass handles.

HOSPITAL TO ASK BIDS FOR WING

Memorial Board Announces Figures Will Be Asked In About 6 Weeks

Bids on the new south wing to be added to Memorial hospital will be asked for in about six weeks, it was announced last night.

The statement was announced after the regular meeting of the board of directors of the hospital.

Albert P. Pollick, administrator at the hospital, said that George Scott, architect for the Eastern Engineering company, had been instructed to draw up specifications for the wing.

"We hope to have them out for bids in from four to six weeks," Pollick said. "Construction should start as soon as the bids are in."

THE INSTRUCTIONS were given after approval of the original plans had been received from the State department of Health and Welfare and the department of Labor and Industries, Pollick added.

In other business, Charles R. Wylie, president of the board, was re-elected president. Joseph E. Tagert, vice president; Ralph L. Goettman, secretary-treasurer, were also re-elected.

Ernest V. Hunter, Albert Kessler, Paul Sidley and Joseph Tagert were re-elected for three more years as directors.

In the statistical report, Pollick stated that 368 patients had been admitted to the hospital in the past May.

There was an increase of 56 patients in the year ending with May over the previous year.

The occupancy rate for May was 85 percent.

On July 15 at 7:30 p. m., Pollick will meet with a panel from the budget committee of the United Fund.

The committee members will inspect the facilities and discuss budget requests for the coming United Fund campaign.

The secretary of the board was also instructed to write a letter of thanks and congratulations to the Pottstown Rose society for the success of the public rose garden conducted this year.

Four Shelter Houses For School Children Approved by Board

Four shelter houses will be built for school children, it was decided at the regular meeting of the Douglass township, Berks county, school board meeting last night.

The shelters will be used by children while waiting for buses during rainy weather.

In other business, Clyde Seitz was made treasurer of the board for the next year.

James Ego, representative of the township on the Boyertown jointure, reported that all school members had signed the jointure, effective as of July 6, 1953.

THE BOARD voted to buy all books and supplies from Harry F. Keene, Pottstown, and announced that the annual auditing of the books would be conducted at the Colebrookdale school on July 7 at 8 p. m.

A special meeting of the board will be called sometime in July after the annual enumeration of pupils has been completed.

The next regular meeting of the board will be held on Aug. 4, at the Colebrookdale school.

French Press Deny Report From Saigon

PARIS, June 23 (AP)—The semi-official French press agency (AFP) said tonight "authorized circles" had denied a report in Saigon yesterday that the United States will ask to take part in planning the fighting against the Red-led rebels in Indochina.

The Saigon report said a new program was being planned under which vastly stepped up supplies of US Arms would be sent to the French Union forces in Indochina.

The report was attributed to well informed American sources in Saigon. The US now is paying 40 to 50 percent of the cost of the Indochina war.

French government sources were unavailable tonight for comment on the AFP story, which was carried under a Paris dateline.

Mother Forgives Son For Betting Savings

NEW YORK, June 23 (AP)—Henry Way's mother showed him today what a real thoroughbred is.

With a forgiveness as deep as her 71-years of age, Mrs. Lillian Way refused to press a complaint that he had made off with her $13,000 life savings to bet on the Kentucky Derby. (He bet on the favored Native Dancer and lost by a head.)

In court today the trembling widow declared: "I haven't long to live. I hope God will forgive my son's."

A grand larceny indictment against Way, 43, himself the father of three, was dismissed.

Said the weeping, penitent son: "I'll sign my house over to my mother and give her everything I've got. She can live with me for the rest of her life."

British Lords Ask Equality for Pigs

LONDON, June 23 (AP)—The House of Lords tonight went on record in favor of "equality among pigs as well as among men."

After long debate, the peers stamped their approval on a bill aimed at setting up more humane conditions for the slaughter of animals—pigs in particular.

Lord Bledisloe, 85-year-old farming expert, told his fellow lords: "There is nothing more distressing to pigs than to have to watch one of their number being selected and slaughtered."

With feeling, he went on to plead that "the killing of pigs in slaughter houses and yards would not take place in the presence of other pigs."

The Earl of Listowel joined in supporting him, with the declaration that "we as Socialists believe in equality among pigs as well as among men."

on how fast they can go."

The district attorney also pointed out that they've picked out the games of West Coast hot-rodgers which are variations of the "chicken" principle.

"They try to scare other motorists and one another by heading straight for one another. The first one to steer away is called 'chicken.'"

IN SOME cases, it was reported, the drivers have padded their fenders with concrete to make battering rams of them.

In the two-hour session held in the West Chester county court-house Tuesday morning, the district attorney told the police officials that his office would work in conjunction with them in an effort to convict violators.

"We advised the police chiefs to send violations along to Harrisburg. There, the reports will be studied and if possible the violators will have their licenses suspended or revoked," McKee went on.

"We don't know if these methods will stop the great increases in law violations but we believe they'll help check the increases," he said further.

A LOT of the juveniles breaking the laws, he said, are youngsters who aren't even old enough to be driving cars.

"We're going to stop juveniles on the roads when we see them and make them show us their licenses," he said.

The meeting was attended by 100 percent of the police chiefs in the county. Besides the chiefs, sergeants from three State police barracks were present.

AUTOMOBILE HITS FARM TRAILER

Man, Wife Injured In Earlville Accident

A man and his wife were injured and their 1932 model car demolished last night when they rammed into the back end of a trailer loaded with hay on Route 562 in Earl township.

Earl H. Steltz, 41, of Gilbertsville, was admitted to Memorial hospital at 10:40 p. m. with possible fractures of the right ribs and right knee and possible internal injuries. His wife, Mrs. Irene Steltz, 39, was treated for lacerations of the right arm and forehead and multiple abrasions of the body.

The accident occurred about two-tenths of a mile from Earlville when Steltz, who was driving, passed a truck while traveling toward Reading.

AS HE PASSED the truck and pulled back into his lane, he could not stop in time to avoid plowing into the farm trailer, which was loaded with about 50 to 70 bales of hay.

The trailer, which was being pulled by a 1949 farm tractor, was also traveling toward Reading. Its operator was James Delp, 21, of Barco.

State Troopers Michael Terencko and Arthur W. McNally, of the Reading barracks investigated. The injured couple was rushed to the hospital by the Boyertown Community ambulance.

they will be practical for that use."

Davidheiser has built 100 homes in the Belmont terrace section.

The lot on Terrace lane, between Adams and Mineral streets, could service children from Belmont apartment.

The other two lots are located at both ends of Park drive.

Davidheiser added, "There is water on each lot and sewer lines along the lots. The borough won't get stuck with these lots. Each one contains more than 10,000 square feet. The one is big enough for a ball diamond."

"But I can't afford to keep cutting weeds there and if the borough doesn't accept my offer I'll build houses on them."

Soviets Charge Yanks With Decree Destruction

BERLIN, June 23 (AP)—The Soviet zone news agency ADN tonight charged that occupants of a US military mission car tore down the Soviet commander's martial-law proclamation in a Potsdam street.

The agency said the incident occurred Saturday — three days after the workers' revolt broke out in East Germany.

Potsdam is the headquarters of the Soviet occupation army and was placed under martial law last Thursday.

The US, Britain and France have military missions in Potsdam accredited to the Soviet command.

Col. August Schanze, head of the US mission, said tonight he had no knowledge of the alleged incident.

Tractor Overturns Kills Farm Youth

LEBANON, June 23 (AP)—A 17-year-old boy died in Good Samaritan hospital here today of a crushed chest suffered last night when the farm tractor he was riding overturned.

The victim, Robert E. Davis, of Jonestown, RD 1, and his brother, John, 12, were hurt when the tractor overturned on a road near Lickdale, according to Trooper Lloyd H. Brubaker, of the Indian-town Gap State police station.

John was hospitalized with severe cuts and a probable arm fracture. The boys were headed for home after pulling tree stumps with the tractor.

Scranton Citizens Laud New Signal Depot Project

TOBYHANNA, June 23 (AP)—Scranton community leaders toured the $5 million dollar US Signal depot construction project today and hailed it as a major step in easing the problem of unemployment in the area.

The inspection tour was conducted through the 100-acre installation in a Government train. Completion of the depot, started in the Summer of 1951, is scheduled for next Jan. 1. About 3500 civilians will be employed in full-scale operations.

US Reading Tastes Swing to Non-Fiction

LOS ANGELES, June 23 (AP)—What are America's tastes in reading matter?

Reporters sampled opinion today among delegates to the American Library association's annual conference and noted these trends:

"Teen-age girls favor love stories, as they always have.

But "teen-age" boys, possibly becoming more serious minded, are switching from adventure talks to science and science fiction.

Adults are turning back to the classics, in the field of fiction. But in many cities, mature readers are selecting more non-fiction than fiction.

SHOCK KILLS MAN

7 ENLISTMENTS ARE EXTENDED

National Guardsmen Sign for Extra Year

Seven members of Pottstown's Company A, National Guard, extended their enlistments for one year at a regular meeting last night at the armory.

Signing for another year were Melvin Miller, Boyertown; Clarence P. Wensel, Spring City; Kenneth L. Herrlinger, 330 North Franklin street; Robert L. Gibble, 183 Sheridan street; Kenneth L. Ingham, 518 Beech street; Kenneth L. Landis, 808 High street, and Alvin Z. Walt Jr., Royersford RD 1.

Company A will hold an "Old Timer's Night" on July 7 to which all former members of the unit are invited.

The unit's blood drive will be started Saturday morning with a truck and ambulance from the medical company set up at headquarters on High street. The Ladies auxiliary will be in charge of the event.

Classes last night were conducted by Gerald D. Landis, Bernhardt Lerner, Robert Gibble, Melvin Miller, Stanley Yarmush, Paul Satko and Donald Ifutt.

Rabbi Emil Schorsch May Attend Parley

Rabbi Emil Schorsch has made tentative plans to attend sessions of the 53rd annual convention of the Rabbinical Assembly of America which is being held in Atlantic City.

He plans to go either today or tomorrow for one day. He is a member of the national association of 500 conservative rabbis who are gathering.

Theme of the convention is "The Meaning of Prayer for Modern Man," with the sub-theme, "The Role of Worship in 20th Century Civilization."

Speakers and seminars will occupy most of the group's time.

Korean Gives Aid To Flood Victims

SIoux CITY, Ia., June 23 (AP) — A 50-year-old native Korean was so impressed with the suffering of flood victims here that he turned over to them material he was saving to send to his family in Korea. The story of Taddeo Noda's generosity was told by the Red Cross. Noda is a janitor in a restaurant here.

Noda got a close glimpse of the disaster caused by the June 8 flash flood when he came upon a group of victims at an emergency Red Cross shelter set up in the lobby of the Sioux City YMCA, where Noda lives.

He went to his room and returned with his arms laden with bandages, medicine, olive oil and even a flashlight.

"It do more good here than back home," he told a surprised Red Cross worker as he handed over the supplies.

Residents Fail to Protest

HARRISBURG, June 23 (AP) — Harrisburg residents who planned complaining to city council about dust raised by vehicles on recently re-surfaced street failed to show up at council meeting today.

Some home owners said yesterday they would appear before council to complain of dust settling on parked automobiles and drifting into homes.

The re-surfacing was done with liquid asphalt and limestone chips.

SPEED TRAP —

ALPHUS C. GERHART, 54, husband of Maude (Kantner) Gerhart, 337 KING STREET, died last night. Born in Pottstown, he lived here all of his life. He was the son of John and the late Carrie (Bower) Gerhart. He was a member of the Pike township Sportsmen's club, the Empire Hook and Ladder Fire company, Liberty Fire company, Spring City, and St. Paul's Reformed church.

He had been self-employed as a paper hanger.

Besides his wife and father, he leaves one son, John A., Cedarville RD 2; two daughters, Mildred, wife of Robert Herrlinger, 961 South Hills boulevard, and Catherine, wife of Clayton Shaner Jr., 632 New street, Spring City; five brothers, Harvey, 337 Jefferson street, Gerald, 361 Laurel street, Charles, Loran, Berks county, and Arthur, Iowa, and one sister, Irene, wife of Earl Steltz, Gilbertsville.

Funeral services will be from a funeral home at 112 North Washington street at 2 p. m. Friday with interment in Highland Memorial park. The Rev. C. W. Ebbert, pastor of St. Paul's Reformed church, will officiate.

Services for ANNA (HARTMAN) BAHK, 88, RUNITING APARTMENTS, HIGH AND HANOVER STREETS, widow of Jacob S. Bahr and mother of the late Harry J. Bahr, who founded the Bahr arcade, were held yesterday at 2 p. m. from a funeral home at 359 King street.

Officiating was the Rev. Eugene B. Umberger, pastor of Transfiguration Lutheran church, and interment was made in Pottstown East End cemetery.

Funeral services for GEORGE A. HILL, 37, of ALLENTOWN, were held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from a funeral home at 1501 North Eleventh street, Reading, with the Rev. Elmer R. Deibert, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran church, Reading, officiating. Interment was made in Forest Hill Memorial park, Reading. Members of the family served as pallbearers.

President Proclaims July 4 Prayer Day

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP) — President Eisenhower today proclaimed Saturday, July 4, as a national day of penance and prayer. He asked that all citizens pray then for God's help in "solving the grave problems" confronting the nation. His proclamation was pursuant to a congressional resolution of April 17, 1952.

US Raids Bank Accounts Of Rebellious Housewives

MARSHALL, Tex., June 23 (AP) — The Federal Government has made another raid on the bank accounts of the Marshall housewives who won't collect Social Security taxes for their cooks and maids.

An Internal revenue agent came yesterday and took $36 from four accounts at the First National bank.

He had court orders to collect money from four more accounts at the Marshall National bank but failed to do it when the president of the bank was busy and couldn't see him.

The bank expects him back tomorrow.

ON MERCY FLIGHT — Mary Jeanette Martz, 5, stricken with polio while in Iran with her parents, is comforted by her father, Col. William V. Martz, on their arrival in New York from Lebanon. The child was met at the airport by an ambulance supplied by the March of Dimes and taken to the Institute of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation for medical treatment.

AND SO AS he sat under the great, groaning pine and whittled the sunny Summer days away he was grateful to those friends of another year who were kind enough to send greetings when they journeyed to far away climes. And Witherspoon always reciprocated. In his gay, free days when he tramped over some of the earth's dustiest trails he always sent a message to his neighbors at home. That's the way it should be with Pottstown vacationers who venture to beach or mountain. Many years from now they too will cherish a card them to see anyone. The only time they may attack anyone is when they are nursing cubs.

How the bear (if there is one) found its way into the Bally area may not be answered until it is found. If it had been kept in captivity, there may be markings on its body.

What is even more puzzling to both Blair and Rickert is how a bear could get into the area. The nearest bear in their estimation is about 100 miles from here in Pike county.

"Bears are not natives of this region," Rickert said, "and brown bears are really a rarity." But despite this comment, Rickert said he would press a complete investigation.

Blair has not joined in the search, since the bear was spotted in Rickert's area of Berks county and not his.

Vacationing With Mercury Readers

By THE VACATION EDITOR (Mercury Staff Writer)

Jacob Witherspoon sat under the tall pine tree in a green lawn chair and fanned flies.

He was looking over a pile of old mail and periodically he leaned back and looked far, far away into the sky.

Those old cards and letters brought back memories. And when a particularly cherished event stirred his mind he would look up at the little white clouds floating across the blue sky like puffs of Summer smoke. When he gazed off into the clouds the happy days of other years seemed to dance back.

Greetings from Peoria, Pittsburgh, Dallas, Duluth, Daytona Beach, Seattle, Tokyo, Paris, London and Bombay were among that pile of old cards. And they were his most prized earthly possessions.

Jacob Witherspoon had been on many vacations, but he knew his days of travel were over.

from Maine, Atlantic City or Biloxi. And helping the vacationer is The Mercury. You can greet your friends through The Mercury vacation column.

TAKING advantage of the vacation column are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gloss, Pottstown RD 2. They have entered their card in the memory book from Rehoboth Beach, Del. They wrote, "It's just swell here. Having a fine time."

Their card showed the sand and breakers at Rehoboth beach. Mail your greeting to the Vacation Editor, Pottstown Mercury, King and Hanover streets. All your friends and neighbors will read about your travels and when you get home you can clip the column for that lifetime scrapbook.

Men Escape Injury As Car Turns Over

Three young men escaped injury last night when their sedan spun around on Squirrel Hollow road in Douglass township and tipped over. The accident occurred about 10:30 o'clock. The operator of the car was reported to be Kenneth Feick, formerly of Douglassville.

The car was traveling north on Squirrel Hollow road about a half mile north of Route 422 when the accident occurred.

The vehicle shot out of control, spun around and tipped over, landing in a field against trees beside the road. None of the three occupants was injured.

better to take the two feet from the east side of the street rather than take one foot off each side.

By taking it all off one side, they'll have less curbing to rip up and replace.

THE CURBING, then, is the second big bridge that has to be crossed by the borough before the State will move in and do the job. Besides widening the street, the borough has to install curbing along the 1800 feet.

To do this, a resolution would have to be passed by council at the July 13 meeting giving the borough the right to construct the curbs.

Then the borough would build curbs and charge the adjacent property owner for the work. (If the borough has to replace an already-built curbing to widen the road, the borough would replace it with no cost to the property owner. Only where new curbs are built will the property owner be charged. In all there are more than 30 property owners on both sides of the 1800 foot stretch.)

SO AFTER the resolution is passed at the July 13 council meeting, notifications will be sent to the property owners. They'll be told that they have 30 days in which to have sidewalks.

If, after that period, they haven't complied with the notice, the borough will go in and build them and charge them for the work.

But 30 days from the time the notices are sent out will make it about Aug. 20-25.

If the borough has to build the sidewalks it may take another month, making it late September.

THE STATE might then be able to come in and do the work, but then again, as one political observer remarked, the State may be tied up with other work for that last month or two of working weather.

"Time is flying by," Schade said yesterday. "The councilmen have known about this for months," he said. "The project was started about a year and a half ago. I don't know why there's been so much passing the buck on this."

Schade is worried that the red tape coming up in the next two months, concerning the council readings, resolutions, notifications, and possible delinquent property owners, may result in the loss of the "gift" project by the State.

Borough Manager Horace B. Gulden said yesterday that the resolution giving the borough power to order the construction of curbs would be ready for the July council meeting.

The Populace Increases

POTTSTOWN'S population has been growing by leaps and bounds this year, Hayden H. Bushey, local registrar of the State Bureau of Vital Statistics, has pointed out. He's got figures to back this up. So far the first six months of this year there have been 210 deaths and 680 births, leaving a net gain of 470 in the borough's population.

If the pace keeps up, the net gain for the year will be more than 910. And in ten years the borough's population will grow by 10,000—a little less than half of its present population.

You can't brush off this fast pace with "Oh, well, next year the pendulum will swing the other way and it will all average out nicely."

For experts attribute the local population increase to factors which are indeed part and parcel of the modern way of living.

Most plausible reason for the growth, as Mr. Bushey points out, is the excellence of local hospitals, their facilities and doctors' skills. A person for whom life would have been despaired not many years ago today is not even put on the danger list, thanks to sulfa and other modern drugs and scientific advancement.

Then too undernourished persons are not so numerous as they were. Good food abounds everywhere. There is plenty to eat not only for those who require large quantities but also for those who are on restricted diets. That makes for long living.

Another reason for longevity is the comparative carefree modern way of living. Short working hours, no lack of recreational facilities, and conveniences and luxuries undreamed of not too many years ago. It's a great life to be alive. People know it, and they're living longer.

In many respects Pottstown has geared, or is gearing itself, to a larger population. New hospital construction is already under way; more churches and fire houses are being built; more schools have been built; streets are on the planning boards; and thousands of new houses are dotting the once-vacant lots of the community.

But what of other demands that will be made to supply the needs of a greater population? There will be demands for electricity, gas, water, sewage elimination, telephones, large stores of all types, etc.

There will be the demands made upon every walk of life; the butcher, the baker, the candlestickmaker, lawyer, doctor, merchant, chief.

Will these private enterprises who now supply these needs to Pottstown be able to supply them to a larger Pottstown?

If they are not able to, people will move away from the borough and reside in communities which today recognize the needs of a growing populace and are providing for them.

Big utility companies like the Philadelphia Electric company and the Bell Telephone company follow patterns and trends which enable them to predict with amazing accuracy what demands will beset a given community. Other industries should do the same.

It seems like a good idea for those industrialists on whom the town is dependent for its staple supplies to look ahead and to plan their facilities accordingly.

Those Bus Stops

THE traffic expert who decreed bus loading stops on High street had a great idea. By prohibiting parking in specified areas adjacent to intersections, buses could pull off the traveled highway to load and unload.

It was a great idea until certain motorists and unloading truckers discovered bus stops as ideal for parking. They were ideal because police have not been enforcing the "no parking" ban applied to these stops.

Just yesterday two pleasure cars were parked bumper to bumper in a High and Hanover loading zone. The bus had to double park to unload and load, and the street immediately developed a miniature traffic snarl.

A few police tickets on the cars of those who place their own convenience above the public welfare would put an end to this bad practice.

Dogs Are Blameless; Stop Indecency!

Pities the Dog
To the Editor: To the person who wrote of the tied dogs in Gilbertsville (Readers Say, June 20).

I would like to point out to her that had I no pity for those horribly ill-treated dogs I would certainly not call them a nuisance as she did.

It is all well and good to feel so smug and self-righteous in praising oneself for not allowing one's own dog to be a nuisance.

However, I pity the dog who belongs to such a person.

So childish, so petty and mean to blame dogs who are unfortunate enough to fall into the hands of culprits who abuse them so.

The writer of the nuisance letter apparently expects sympathy for having to look upon the sad fate of these dogs.

The pity I would extend her would be to give her the same dose of cruelty these dogs she calls a nuisance have endured.

Our 'Indecent' Women

To the Editor: Why not begin a crusade on women in their most disgraceful "shorts" seen on the public streets. A strip tease has nothing on the "shorts"; they (the teasers) are at least not exposed to the general public.

WASHINGTON
Fierce Revival of Fight For World Trade Seen

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, June 23—A fierce revival of competitive prewar struggles for world trade is forecast by diplomatic and economic experts in the wake of a Korean armistice and even a partial settlement of disputes with the Russo-Chinese Communists. It threatens to diminish markets for American goods simultaneously with booming farm surpluses and peak industrial production.

Despite the Eisenhower Administration's pledges on behalf of reciprocal trade and a lowering of tariff walls, even the friendliest nations like Britain and France are suspicious of our intentions.

They believe that a Republican regime at Washington foreshadows a high-tariff policy, and their fears have been borne out in many respects.

US FACES COMPETITION: They are already planning to negotiate agreements with Russia, China and the satellite countries. In fact, it was in anticipation of a resumption of trading that they have continued to recognize Peking even during the bloody Korean conflict.

In addition to London and Paris interests, the United States will face stiff competition from a reviving Germany and Japan and from several South American countries. Their commercial needs mesh, for they can supply the Soviet with manufactured articles in return for timber, minerals and food.

Barter may be necessary for various reasons, the United States will enter the race under severe handicaps.

Our assumption of leadership in the Korean fighting and in the cold war generally, although under United Nations auspices, has made us extremely unpopular with the Russian and Chinese Reds and with their controlled puppet countries. They will not go out of their way to do us any commercial favors.

Moreover, the high prices of our exports, both agricultural and industrial, will place us at a definite disadvantage. Our rivals can and will undersell us in many lines. Finally, if necessary, they will engage in outright barter with nations lacking hard cash. Uncle Sam may have to do so yet.

EUROPEANS NOT REASSURED:

President Eisenhower's pledges have not reassured the Europeans, in view of certain inconsistent actions by the White House.

Ike has named a protectionist to the US Tariff commission, and will probably be forced to name another of similar beliefs, if Congress adds another member to this agency. He has decreed tighter restrictions on butter imports.

Moreover, foreign businessmen laugh when it is pointed out that the Roosevelt-Hull-Truman tariff cuts under the Reciprocal Trade Agreement Acts gave them a larger market in this country. Although in force for 19 years, these statutes have furnished almost no help, they maintain. This reaction will come as a surprise to many Americans, especially to GOP-ers on Capitol Hill.

TARIFF PICTURE MISLEADING:

Democratic free traders have estimated that our general tariff level has been reduced to about 12 percent, and that is probably true. But this calculation includes many goods on which the duties are extremely low. It gives no true picture of the height of the wall remaining against many major European exports.

It is, for instance, 28 percent on whisky, 58 percent on woolen cloth, 32 percent on dyed cotton cloth, 30 to 35 percent on chinaware, and 75 to 80 percent on bicycles. In addition, red tape and a horribly complicated set of regulations, tend to increase the duties even higher.

To the Editor: We have settled back, brushed the dust from our hair, swallowed our hearts back into normal position and managed to refrain from clapping our hands to our ears at the sound of screeching brakes. For now the wonderful and exciting benefit stock car races for the orthopedic clinic of the Pottstown hospital are over.

By DOROTHY KILGALLEN

Jottings in Penicil

SHUBERT ALLEY hears that Jose Ferrer hopes to go full speed ahead with plans to bring "The Musical Comedy Man" (based on George M. Cohan's fabulous career) to Broadway next year—and on a grand scale. Ferrer intends to triple as producer, director and star of the extravaganza, and is yearning to snag his heart throb, Rosemary Clooney, for the top feminine role.

The Fire Island party tossed for Polly Adler over the weekend was comparatively quiet. Only three "braves." One inebriated fellow got into a verbal hassle with Miss Adler, and no less a Galahad than Johnny Jelke came to the rescue of her good name by fighting the cad.

THE WORRY CLINIC
By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
TOM O., is a nice looking auto salesman.

"But, Dr. Crane, I'm afraid we're heading for a divorce," his talented young wife informed me.

"Tom is a likeable Irishman, but he always runs away from his 'problems. When the chips are down, Tom reaches for his whisky flask.

"We've been married 12 years, but he has never held a good job very long. For sooner or later, the pressure gets heavy and Tom then runs away into a drunken week-end.

"He usually sobers up without a job. This further deflates his ego. So he has finally become a chronic drunkard.

"I've had to work to support us. And I have been given several fine promotions. But the more successful I grow, the more Tom takes to the bottle.

"But somebody must bring home the bacon and Tom is still childlike in his emotions. He has never matured, despite his 6 foot height and 190-pound weight."

IN A CRISIS, do you readers fight or flee? Are you a lion or a panicky sheep? Even if you don't feel brave, at least stand pat and act courageous! Then you will really be courageous.

For the brave man is timid and frightened at heart, but he forces himself to put up a bold front.

The coward simply runs away but the courageous man at least acts bold until he fools the public. And this "acting" soon can become a habit. Then he is a brave man by nature.

"Act the way you'd like to be and soon you'll be the way you act," runs an axiom of Applied Psychology. Follow that rule at all costs!

DRUNKARDS HAVE acquired the habit of fleeing from their problems. They run away. But this does not solve those difficulties. For the problems still face them, in even greater degree, the moment they sober up.

But alcohol is not the only escape device used by mankind. Some people flee from fearful social contacts by being hermits. They desert mankind.

Others become "floaters" who always think the grass on the other side of the fence is greener. So they drift from one job or city to another as "rolling stones."

Gambling is another flight from reality into a make-believe world where its victims cherish a childlike belief in "Lady Luck." They never grow up emotionally, for they think somehow, somewhere Luck will defeat the laws of mathematics.

So learn to finish your jobs!

'God Bless the H-Bomb'

To the Editor: With all this fearsome talk on radio, in newspaper articles and editorials, regarding the great destructive power of the new hydrogen bomb now in process, it is small wonder there is so much unrest, discontent, insecurity and unhappiness in the world today.

Such threats hanging over the heads of mankind makes one wonder if life is really worth living in such dangerous times.

There may be an unforeseen blessing, however. As the hydrogen bomb is no respecter of persons, places or things, the instigators of war, of which no doubt there are a few in our own good country, should stop and ponder for their own sakes before they plunge mankind into another global conflict.

Few wish to lose their lives, even for a good cause, and much less those who wield great power over others. The bomb may compel those in power to find a better way to settle differences, and mayhap it will lead to the true way. This is the hope of most all mankind. And may God bless the hydrogen bomb for it!

HOLLYWOOD, June 23 — Debbie Reynolds, the darling of the fan-magazine set, is a gal of many talents. She also has some time off from movie making. So Debbie's gone to Dallas, Tex., to star in the stage musical, "Best Foot Forward." Returns here in three weeks, then preps for a revival of the dramatic play, "Years Ago," to open here in August. 2. In the Bible, in what country was Abraham born?

FOLKS OF FAME — GUESS THE NAME

1. This Indian chief was considered one of the most remarkable men of his race. He was born about 1720 and became chief of the Ottawas and a leader of the confederacy of the Ottawas, Wyandots, Shawnees, Senecas, Kickapoos, Potawatomi, Ojibwas, and all the rest. He was an ally of France, but made friends with Maj. Robert Rogers who was on his way to Michilimackinac and other forts surrendered to the English by the French. However, he soon realized that, if not checked, the English would eventually take over the whole of the country and drive his people out. So he gathered the Indian tribes for a joint attack on the British forts. The Indians captured and destroyed all but four of the 12 fortified posts, and laid siege to Detroit for six months—the longest siege in the Indian warfare—but it failed. He was killed in 1769 by an Illinois Indian bribed by an English trader. Who was he?

2. Born at Bennington, Vt., July 10, he began his career with a magic act in clubs, camps and hospitals in New England, and then toured with a carnival. He sang on Broadway in the chorus of "The Chocolate Soldier." Next he appeared in night clubs, radio as a model, and made his television debut in a "Campus Hoop-La" show. What is his name?

★ THAT NEW LOOK—Modern design will be the big difference in the Arnell store, 261 High street, which has been remodeled during the past month and which will open for a preview showing tomorrow from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. The preview was announced yesterday by the new manager, Bert Weger, who has been with Arnell's since January, 1916. The store, as you probably recall, was hit by fire the past April 30, with heavy damage caused by smoke. Weger reported that the interior of the store has been remodeled completely, in a modernistic architectural design. Among the highlights are the latticework overhanging the counters with new-type lighting above it, and the rather daring use of modern color schemes. As before, the store will sell TV, appliances, jewelry and photographic equipment.

ON DUTY—Ensign Tad T. Riley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur C. Riley, 915 High street, now is on duty at Cabanis Field, Naval Auxiliary Air station at Corpus Christi, Texas. Riley who is a Hill grad and attended the University of North Carolina joined the Navy in September, 1948. He received basic flight training at Pensacola, Fla.

★ BIRTHS HIGH, DEATHS LOW—There's been a record-breaking low number of deaths in the Pottstown area recently and a record-breaking high number of births, it was reported yesterday by Hayden H. Bushey, 23 North Hanover street, local registrar of the State Bureau of Vital Statistics. So far the first six months of this year, there have been 210 deaths, about 25 less than normal, and there have been 680 births. "That is, I would say, a record," Bushey declared. A new record for births in one month was set the past March—154. Another record appears to be in the making this month. As of the past Sunday, there were only 19 deaths for the month, lower than the total for any similar period in the past seven years. Bushey said the only reason he has heard for death's near-holiday is: "Our hospitals today are up to par, and our doctors, especially in surgery, are way ahead of what they were."

HOME, SWEET HOME—Shandy Hill, general manager of The Mercury who entered the Reading hospital, Reading, the past June 3 and went under the surgeon's knife a week later, will be brought to his home at 265 Lee avenue today. Hill has been making a remarkable recovery from his operation.

★ CHIEF CATAPULTER—Frederick R. Rupert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rupert, Route 422 near Saylor avenue, Sanatoga, is aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Valley Forge due tomorrow in San Diego, Calif., after seven months of combat duty in Korean waters. The 33-year-old Navy man was in charge of the catapults that launched airplanes on almost daily bombing and strafing missions over North Korea. He enlisted in the Navy before Pearl Harbor, is now aviation chief boatswain's mate. His wife, the former Ellen I. Peiffer, originally from Pottstown RD 1, near Ellis Woods, is living in San Diego.

★ INVASION—The Ludvik Szells of 433 King street are having plenty of company these days. Over the week-end five Ohioans blew east to spend a week with the Szells. They are Mrs. James H. Corron Jr. and daughter Shirley from Euclid, Mrs. James A. Harper and son Gordon from Chagrin Falls and Joseph Sell from Cleveland. Joe is Louis' brother and father of Mrs. Corron and Mrs. Harper. Mrs. Corron attended the meeting of the borough highway committee in City Hall Monday night. "Why, they've got the same problems here in Pottstown we've got back in Euclid!" she exclaimed. "Streets that need repair, parking, spending money, etc." The visitors made an inspection tour of the Hill school which they liked a lot and this week they hope to get into some of Pottstown's industrial plants.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.
MANY PEOPLE now know that a gland in the body, called the pancreas, can be a cause of diabetes if it does not function properly.

When the cells of the pancreas do not give off enough insulin, the cells throughout the body cannot utilize the sugar that is eaten to furnish energy.

However, sometimes the pancreas forms little tumors and overproduces the amount of insulin given off.

This can be as serious as diabetes, for too much insulin can be harmful. Usually, these tumors of the cells of the pancreas occur in persons between the ages of 30 to 70 years.

People thus affected complain of fainting and weakness in the morning and following heavy work. They may show the symptoms of shock with very low blood pressure, weak pulse and pallor.

At times, these shock attacks may become severe enough even to cause death. This weakness and fainting become gradually more severe and more frequent. These people usually recover after taking some sugar or glucose, such as eating a candy bar.

In persons with this condition, a test of the blood when the person has not eaten for eight hours reveals a much lower amount of sugar present in the blood than is normal.

If this disease is allowed to progress without treatment, the low blood pressure and symptoms of shock that accompany it may cause permanent damage to the brain.

Most of these tumors are not cancerous and, therefore, if taken care of early enough and properly, the person can, as a rule, lead a normal life.

There is no medicine to treat the little tumors of this type in the pancreas. Usually, the person is operated on and the tumors can be readily seen in the pancreas and easily removed. The person normally remains free from symptoms once this has been done.

Red Bulgaria Offers To Talk Border Pact

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., June 23 (AP)—Red Bulgaria notified the UN today it is ready to sit down at a conference table to negotiate its border troubles with Greece.

The Soviet satellite has been embroiled with Greece since 1946 and the UN has made repeated efforts to solve the difficulties.

Until today Bulgaria—Not a UN member—ignored all UN tries and reviled the various commissions which the General Assembly established to help out.

Diplomats regarded the shift as a dramatic and significant part of the current Red "peace offensive."

Errol Flynn Tries To Pare Alimony

LOS ANGELES, June 23 (AP)—One of Hollywood's longest running court case—Errol Flynn's alimony trouble—today played the State Supreme court.

The dashing romanticist was in Europe but his attorneys dued for him in attempting to cut his payments to the first Mrs. Flynn, actress Lili Damita.

The legal question involved is purely one of jurisdiction. In an original property settlement with Lili, Flynn agreed to pay 10 percent of his gross income if it reached $180,000 a year but never less than $9000.

MASS PICKETING HALTED

PITTSBURGH, June 23 (AP)—An Allegheny county judge issued a temporary injunction today banning mass picketing at the strike-bound plant of American Cyanamid corporation in nearby Bridgeville.

MIAMI, Fla., June 23 (AP)—A Doberman Pinscher, eight years old—past middle age for a dog—tangled with an alligator last night and lived.

But, let Mrs. Harriet Keyfetz, owner of the dog, Lana, tell the story. She and her husband had taken Lana for a walk along the Uleta river when:

"Lana ran ahead. We heard yelps and the sound of a struggle. When we ran up we saw Lana out in the middle of the river, which is about 30 feet wide and six feet deep at that point.

"Lana was being pulled down by a 'gator which must have flipped her into the water with his tail and then grabbed her. Judging from the size of his head he

Mercury now brings you POWER STEERING

3 times easier handling

Whenever more than finger-tip pressure is needed on the wheel, power steering goes to work . . . removes the strain from parking and turning, yet doesn't sacrifice that safe "feel of the road."

POWER BRAKES

50% easier stopping

An ounce of toe pressure is multiplied hydraulically into pounds of braking power. Your foot pivots effortlessly from accelerator to the closer, lower brake pedal, giving faster, smoother stops.

4-way POWER SEAT

MOVES up and down, too

New first-in-class 4-way power seat gives you the position from which you can see the best, drive the easiest. Handy for raising you out of the sun's glare and shifting your position for more relaxation.

Power steering, power brakes, 4-way power seat, white side-wall tires and full-disc hubcaps optional at extra cost.

Three big reasons for adding Mercury to your list to see and try.

Mercury's far-advanced power steering removes the real work from driving and parking. Mercury's power brakes take little more toe pressure than the accelerator. And Mercury's power seat adjusts four ways to give you new driving comfort and safety.

With these new features plus Mercury's years-ahead styling, famous economy, proven V-8 engine backed by our exclusively V-8 history, and a reputation for the highest trade-in value in its field—you get more for your money with Mercury.

Drop around and try a Mercury real soon. How about right now?

Kaiser and Son Clash With Senators Over Cost of Planes to Government

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP)—Henry Kaiser and his son, Edgar, rulers of a vast industrial empire, clashed with senators today over the price they are charging the Government for airplanes and over whether Kaiser executives have been playing politics.

The elder Kaiser said he would probably fire any employee he found taking one side or the other in senatorial campaigns.

He told members of the Senate Armed Services subcommittee that he is "dead against" such practices and that he has not contributed to any campaign—"although judging from what other companies are doing, maybe that's the way to get contracts."

Politics came up when Senator Symington (D-Mo.), a member of the subcommittee and former secretary of the Air Force, charged that "one of the highest officials" of the Kaiser organization actively opposed him in his senatorial campaign the past Fall.

SYMINGTON SAID the individual also tried to get information from the Air Force to use against him in the campaign.

Kaiser promised to fire the official immediately if the senator would name him and the charge was substantiated.

"We will have him come before this committee and make a statement," Symington said after thinking the matter over.

Charges and countercharges flew across the hearing room as the father-and-son team prepared to defend their record in the production of C-119 cargo planes for the Air Force.

SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH), subcommittee chairman, told the Kaisers their production costs for the big aircraft were five times as much as those of the Fairchild Engine and Aircraft corporation.

In turn, Henry Kaiser accused Fairchild of "dragging its feet" on a contract to give the Kaisers technical aid on the C-119 contract.

He testified that Fairchild did the early engineering for the C-119, which normally would be expected to reduce Kaiser costs, but he said one of Fairchild's employees has stated that Fairchild sent "75 percent wrong tools and information," plus many wrong parts, to the Kaiser plant.

Senator Byrd (D-Va.) asked the Kaisers to provide the Senate group with a complete list of the companies they control, the Government contracts they hold and the Government loans they have been granted.

"HENRY, YOU CAN'T deny that you have borrowed more money from the Government than anybody else in the history of the United States," Symington said. Kaiser joined in the laughter that followed.

At another point Edgar Kaiser accused James Anton, subcommittee counsel, of trying to trap him with questions and demanded of him and the senators:

"Are you trying to get the facts or crucify me?"

His big, gray-haired father nodded emphatic agreement and said the subcommittee was making "obviously unfair" comparisons of Kaiser production costs and those of the Fairchild corporation. He said the cost figures are not comparable.

Father and son said they would get their costs down below Fairchild's if the Government orders as many planes from them as it does from Fairchild.

Symington asked whether their company would be willing to take a contract at a fixed price per plane. Edgar said it would.

Meanwhile, leaders of the two parties held separate policy conferences without reaching any solution to the session-long tax muddle.

Republican Senate and House leaders conferred for two hours while Democratic chieftains were meeting supposedly to consider party policy toward a number of tax suggestions offered since the defeat of the 1 percent sales tax.

"Until they (the Democrats) give us an idea what taxes they can be for, there is not much we can do," Sen. Rowland B. Mahan, GOP Senate leader, told newsmen following the Republican conference.

A DEMOCRATIC spokesman said no action was taken on what taxes his party would support.

A Democratic spokesman said Splain would be unable to meet with Taylor until Monday—thereby delaying any plans of moving a tax program this week.

GOOSE DUCKS OFF—This is strictly for the birds, as Dr. Leonard J. Goss, of the Bronx zoo, New York, is ready to testify. It seems he has been acting as matchmaker in the flighty romance of a pink-footed goose (right) and a hybrid Richardson's gander, whose wing was broken. It seems, also, that there are birds of a feather that do not ordinarily flock together. But when the goose began fluttering about the cage in which the injured gander was recovering, Dr. Goss decided that a romance was hatching, and now they are in the same cage.

MONT CLARE—Mrs. Thomas Carls, 214-J-2, has been acting as matchmaker in the flighty romance of a pink-footed goose (right) and a hybrid Richardson's gander, whose wing was broken. It seems, also, that there are birds of a feather that do not ordinarily flock together. But when the goose began fluttering about the cage in which the injured gander was recovering, Dr. Goss decided that a romance was hatching, and now they are in the same cage.

Mrs. Paul King was hostess recently to members of the Hilltop Sewing circle of Mont Clare. A social period and refreshments were enjoyed following a business session conducted by Lillie Kramer, president.

William Shaffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shaffer, has recently been promoted to airman second class. He is stationed in Puerto Rico.

Mrs. George Barrett and daughter, Jane, and Lawrence Norkas, of Springfield, were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hildebrandt.

The first monthly meeting of the re-organized Cub Scout Pack 285 was held recently at the Mont Clare firehall. Willis Smith, chairman of the pack committee explained the organization and objectives of cub scouting to the boys, and their parents, pointing out that the primary purpose of cubbing was to further co-operation and comradeship between the boys and their parents.

EDGAR HARROP Jr., pack treasurer, then outlined the next year's budget of the pack. Joseph Pennock, cubmaster, was introduced.

To entertain parents and guests, the boys produced several skits illustrating the theme of the month "Westward Ho!"

Berwick Fears Town May Be Undermined

BERWICK, June 23 (AP)—This Columbia county community overlooking the Susquehanna river, though somewhat jittery, is hopeful today that what appears to be the erosion of an underground stream won't spread to undermine the borough.

Evidence that there might be an underground stream wending its subterranean course under the town came yesterday when first the lawn and then the side yard of the Hugh Vaughn property sunk away leaving within the space of a few hours, a hole 40 feet wide and extending about one-third of the way beneath the 12-room Vaughn home.

About 30 trucks and bulldozers, working at top speed, dumped 300 loads of dirt into the cave-in. The workers, despite another earth sag after midnight, finally managed to build the fill about a foot above the surface level of the rest of the property. Up to now the fill has settled a few inches but no further signs of a cave-in were noted.

Lack of Feed Cited In Deaths of Sheep

SALT LAKE CITY, June 23 (AP)—Researchers said today that lack of feed rather than any effects of atomic bomb explosions probably caused the death of 1000 sheep in southern Utah.

Scientists were assigned to determine the cause of a so-called mystery disease on Iron county ranges in May after atomic blasts were set off in Nevada.

Their official findings will not be available for ten days. But Dr. Robert C. Bay, University of Utah veterinarian, said "there were signs of extreme malnutrition due to very poor range conditions" near Caliente, Nev., where the animals wintered.

Sheep carcasses in the Cedar City area showed "no significant radiation count and no beta burns," Dr. Bay said.

CAPTURED BY FBI—Donald C. Fitterer, one of the nation's ten most wanted criminals, is shown in FBI headquarters, San Francisco, after he was captured driving a stolen car across the San Francisco-Oakland Bay bridge. He was unarmed. Soon after Fitterer was taken into custody, he admitted the killing of Charles K. Harrison near Denmark, Iowa, on August 11, 1952, according to FBI agent D. Brown.

New York Council Boosts Real Estate Tax Rates

NEW YORK, June 23 (AP)—The city council, hard pressed to make ends meet as the result of mounting city expenses, voted today to set the new real estate tax rate at $3.33 per $100 of assessed valuation.

This is 11 cents above the current rate—but that isn't all. It is only the basic assessment. Fiscal requirements in the individual boroughs of the city will boost actual collections considerably above the basic tax.

New Alarm Brings Quick Police Action

A recently installed burglar alarm in Pottstown's new East End branch of the National Bank of Pottstown, went off yesterday morning, resulting in a flurry of police activity.

Bank Manager William R. Oberlander accidentally set off the alarm when he opened the vault. Police acted promptly, and three officers were at the bank in a few minutes to answer what proved to be a false alarm.

Electricians immediately went to work to repair the clock that controls the alarm inside the vault and the air conditioning unit which were out of order. Lightning was believed to have caused the trouble.

The branch was opened Monday morning.

Official Claims Gains Against Malaya Reds

LONDON, June 23 (AP)—Colonial Secretary Oliver Lyttelton tonight claimed big gains for British forces in the fight against the Communists in Malaya.

Lyttelton told an association of British Malaya dinners that "the emergency in Malaya is not over but I claim that we have now largely won the population over to our side."

"The emergency in Malaya has got to a point," he said, "where we really and truly can devote much less of our thoughts to matters of containing and destroying the enemy, and much more to building up and restoring the country."

Royersford Man Claims Bride at Marriage Rites Read in Phoenixville

Philip R. Krasley, Royersford, married Lillian Marie Fazio of Phoenixville Saturday at a double ring ceremony in the bride's town. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fazio, 18 East High street, Phoenixville, are the bride's parents. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Krasley, 200 Green street, Royersford.

Setting for the afternoon service was St. Mary's Catholic church, where the altar was decked with palms, lilies and white carnations.

Officiating was the Rev. John W. Mundy, and Helen Rambo was organist. Paul Gleason sang. Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was attired in traditional white.

Her bodice was made entirely of chantilly lace and featured long, tapered sleeves which formed points at her wrists. Beneath a fitted waist, her full skirt was a cascade of nylon tulle pleats and she wore white wedding slippers.

Orange blossoms and pearls trimmed the lace cap which anchored the bride's fingertip-length veil.

White petit fleurs and leaves of mermaid of green which hung in white velvet framed a white orchid center in the bouquet she carried back.

Mary Ann Fazio, a sister of the bride, served as the maid of honor.

She too wore white in a yaltz length gown of net, its strapless bodice covered with a shrug.

Circling her waist was a cummerbund of green which hung in long, sash streamers down the back.

Her fan-style bouquet was formed from lilies, lily-of-the-valley and ivy.

Bridesmaids were Mary McNeal, Phoenixville, and Mary Krasley, a sister of the bride, from Royersford.

Their gowns and boleros, of the same style as the honor maid's, were pale green in color, and their cummerbunds were of yellow taffeta. Their fan bouquets were the same as that of the honor attendant.

Arthur Krasley was the best man.

Gene Krasley and Joseph Wengle were the ushers.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in Friendship Fire hall, Royersford.

To take her place in the receiving line, the mother of the bride was attired in a gown of powder blue lace, with which she chose navy blue accessories.

Pink net and lace formed the frock worn by the mother of the groom, whose accessories were white.

Later, the couple left for a two-week honeymoon in New England and Canada.

The bride traveled wearing a suit of powder blue with white accessories and her white bridal orchid.

Searles Methodist Mothers' Guild Holds Its Dinner To Close Club Year With the Theme of 'Fellowship'

"Fellowship" was the key word of the dinner held by the Mother's Guild, Searles Methodist church, last evening at the Clover Leaf Restaurant.

Louella Seidel led the devotions in which she explained how the Lord's prayer is related to the word.

Blue and pink flowers and white candles composed the table decorations.

Mrs. Luther Ellis, president of the guild, acted as mistress of ceremonies.

Although Irene Boyer is residing in the Evergreen Convalescent Home, she will remember the guild. A letter, sent by the 86-year-old, was read to the mothers by Mrs. Jesse Beigel.

Korean children will receive a box from the guild and also a toy drive for the church nursery was staged. Toys were collected in a miniature playhouse.

Entertaining with piano selections was Mrs. Morris Hoover.

Mrs. LeRoy Stillings took the group back to 1913 and 1914, when she said the Charleston was "rocking the country and madcap living" was popular. She acted out several humorous sketches on the period.

September was slated as the date of the next meeting, which will be held in the church parlor. Hostesses will be Mrs. Morris Hoover, Mrs. Charles Lightcap and Mrs. LeRoy Stillings.

In closing the meeting, the mothers clasped hands and made a chain with candles. Everyone sang, Mrs. John Hart, Mrs. George Luken, "Come Into My Heart Lord Jesus."

Thirty members were present for the dinner, they were: Mrs. Luther Ellis, Mrs. Stanley Reider, Mrs. Louella Seidel, Mrs. John McGowan, Mrs. Nicholas Uhas, Mrs. Marvin Shaffer, Mrs. Mayne Weiden-saul, Mrs. Gary Zeigler, Mrs. Gary Miller and daughter Jill.

Mrs. Homer Royer, Mrs. Jesse Beigel, Mrs. Herbert Firing, Mrs. Harold Cressman, Mrs. Charles Lightcap, Mrs. LeRoy Stillings, Mrs. John Hart, Mrs. George Luken.

Mrs. George Huxoll, Mrs. Jacob Wahal, Mrs. Clarence Beard, Mrs. Milton Detwiler, Louise Kummerer, Mrs. William Kummerer, Mrs. Alfred Kocher, Virginia Butcher, Mrs. Nicholas Lengyel, Mrs. Harry Hartenstein, Mrs. Morris Hoover and Mrs. Harry Mentzer.

SPRING CITY'S young married set is increased by two, with the addition of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Long, pictured above after their recent wedding. Formerly Janet Terwilliger, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Terwilliger, 631 Water street. Mother of the groom is Mary Ella Long, 480 Penn street, Spring City. For her civil marriage, the bride wore a strapless gown of blue satin and net and a matching headpiece. The reception was held in the Limerick Fire hall.

Ruth Leyrer Becomes Bride of Norman Seeders Jr.

Congratulations were given to and Mrs. Lewis Leyrer, Pottstown a hand made petticoat of embroidered eyelet. It has been in the family for 50 years.

Nylon fingertip veiling cascaded from a head band of flowers. Around her neck, she wore a gold chain set with a pink flower surrounded by rhinestones. This was a gift of the groom.

Also a gift from the groom, was a white Bible, which she carried. It was topped with an orchid and a white bow.

Acting as maid of honor, Marion Webster, was attired in a yellow two layer net gown.

It was a floor length, crowning her head was a band of white flowers covered with nylon net.

Eva Smith was the bridesmaid. She wore a gown similar to that of the maid of honor in green.

Flower bouquets for both girls were red and white carnations mixed with baby breath and ferns.

Standing by the groom was the best man, Charles Leyrer. Usher was Edward Rocker.

After the wedding, the four-tier, 25 pound wedding cake was cut and served to all those present for the ceremony.

A reception was held at the home of Mabel Downer, Nantmeal.

Ohio is the destination of the couple's honeymoon.

The bride is a graduate of North Coventry High school. Her husband is employed by Spicers and C. M. Produce company.
